- Provide all necessary equipment and supplies, including needles, blood collection tubes, gloves, sharps containers, and sanitizing materials.
- Ensure that all staff involved are trained to perform the required services.
- Maintain confidentiality and protect the privacy of all participants' health information.
- Chemnet will organize the scheduling of health fair participants through our office and a self-scheduling platform to all participants to choose their appointments.
- Chemnet and our contracted lab (Quest) will provide a health summary report to the participants.

4. Responsibilities of the Client

The Client agrees to:

- Promote the event and inform participants of the availability of blood draw services.
- Provide a suitable space at the event location for the Health Fair Provider to set up and perform blood draws, ensuring cleanliness and privacy.
- Coordinate with the Health Fair Provider to manage the participant flow and prevent overcrowding.
- Provide a list of participants (if required for scheduling purposes) and ensure they are aware of any requirements (such as fasting) prior to the blood draw.

5. Compensation

The Client agrees to pay the Health Fair Provider the sum of $175.00/person for the services provided. (Price is based on a 350-participant minimum. Price adjustments will be accessed by 15% increase if the minimum is not met.)

Blood Screen includes the Chemscreen Panel, CBC, and Hemoglobin A1C added. Plus additional testing for PSA (Male Participants) and VIT D (Female Participants)
