   2. Duties In The Event Of An Act, Error Or Omission, Or Claim Or Suit

Includes copyrighted material of Insurance Services Office, Inc., with its permission.

a. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an act, error or omission which may result in a claim. To the extent possible, notice should include:

(1) What the act, error or omission was and when it occurred; and

(2) The names and addresses of anyone who may suffer damages as a result of the act, error or omission.

b. If a claim is made or suit is brought against any insured, you must:

(1) Immediately record the specifics of the claim or suit and the date received; and

(2) Notify us as soon as practicable.

c. You and any other involved insured must:

(1) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or suit;

(2) Authorize us to obtain records and other information;

(3) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim or defense against the suit; and

(4) Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the insured because of an act, error or omission to which this coverage may also apply.

d. No insured will, except at that insured's own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation or incur any expense without our consent.

e. The requirements to notify us can be satisfied by notifying our agent. Notice can be by any means of communication.

4. Other Insurance

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the insured for a loss we cover under this coverage, our obligations are limited as follows:

a. Primary Insurance

This coverage is primary except when paragraph b below applies. If this coverage is primary, our obligations are not affected unless any of the other insurance is also primary. Then, we will share with all that other insurance by the method described in paragraph c below.

b. Excess Insurance

(1) This coverage is excess over any of the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis that is effective prior to the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations of this insurance and that applies to an act, error or omission on other than a claims-made basis, if the other insurance has a policy period which continues after the original inception date of this coverage.

(2) When this coverage is excess, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any suit if any other insurer has a duty to defend the insured against that suit. If no other insurer defends, we will undertake to do so, but we will be entitled to the insured's rights against all those other insurers.

(3) When this coverage is excess over other insurance, we will pay only our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of the total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in absence of this coverage; and the total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

(4) We will share the remaining loss, if any, with any other insurance that is not described in this Excess Insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the Limits of Insurance shown in paragraph 5d of this coverage.

c. Method Of Sharing

If all of the other insurance permits contribution by equal shares, we will follow this method also. Under this approach each insurer contributes equal amounts until it has paid its applicable Limit of Insurance or none of the loss remains, whichever comes first.

If any of the other insurance does not permit contribution by equal shares, we will contribute by limits. Under this method, each insurer's share is based on the ratio of its applicable Limits of Insurance to the total applicable Limits of Insurance of all insurers.

Includes copyrighted material of Insurance Services Office, Inc., with its permission.

6. For the purposes of the coverage provided, the following Extended Reporting Period provisions are added, or, if this coverage is attached to a claims-made Coverage Part, replaces any similar Section in that Coverage Part:

(a) Has an inception date later than the original inception date of this coverage; or

(b) Does not apply to an act, error or omission on a claims-made basis.

b. The Extended Reporting Period does not extend the policy period or change the scope of coverage provided. Once in effect, the Extended Reporting Period may not be canceled.

c. An Extended Reporting Period of five years is available, but only by an endorsement and for an extra charge.

You must give us a written request for the endorsement within 60 days after the end of the policy period. The Extended Reporting Period will not go into effect unless you pay the additional premium promptly when due.

(1) The employee benefit programs insured;

(2) Previous types and amounts of insurance;

(3) Limits of insurance available under this coverage for future payment of damages; and

(4) Other related factors.

The additional premium will not exceed $100.

The Extended Reporting Period endorsement applicable to this coverage shall set forth the terms, not inconsistent with this Section, applicable to the Extended Reporting Period, including a provision to the effect that the coverage afforded for claims first received during such period is excess over any other valid and collectible insurance available under policies in force after the Extended Reporting Period starts.

d. If the Extended Reporting Period is in effect, we will provide an extended reporting period aggregate limit of insurance described below, but only for claims first received and recorded during the Extended Reporting Period.

The extended reporting period aggregate limit of insurance will be equal to the dollar amount shown in paragraph 5d of this coverage under Limits of Insurance.

Paragraph 5b of this coverage will be amended accordingly. The Each Employee Limit shown in paragraph 5d will then continue to apply as set forth in paragraph 5c.
